

Blue Rag Range-Wongangarra River Trip Report

Myself, Graeme Martin, Richard Heeps, Toby & Alyce Currie and Ian Barry took a trip to the Blue Rag summit then camped down at the picturesque Wongangarra river. Two nights were spent here.

We parted company with Richard and Graeme on the Sunday while the rest of us pressed on and found another camp spot, visiting an old cemetery and the townships of Grant and Talbotville along the way.

It was a very peaceful and relaxing weekend with some great scenery and good driving.

Tom Barnard

---Graeme tackles the raging torrents

---Blue Rag Range Conquered

---“That last little ledge...”

